AuthorThe author, Shirley Bertrand, was born in Menomonie, Wisconsin. Raised on a dairy farm, she has a great love for all animals. Her education began in a one-room school, Hudson Road School, which she attended through eight grade. She completed her high school education at Menomic Public High School. Shirley moved to Chicago, Illinois, in 1955, to seek her “fortune.” She was soon married and became the mother of four children – two boys and two girls. In 1965, she started repairing and dressing dolls in her home. Gradually she worked towards opening Shirley’s Dollhouse in Wheeling, Illinois. Shirley’s Dollhouse recently celebrated its 25th anniversary in business. Shirley’s collecting did not stop at dolls. She has a collection of collections. Antique dolls have always been her love, from the beginning. However, in the late 1980s, she bought her first R. John Wright doll and this was the beginning of her collection of an passion for his works. This is now one of her favorite collections. In order to write this book, it was important to have photographs of as many R. John Wright dolls and characters as possible. This was quite easy for Shirley as she owns an example of nearly every piece made by R. John Wright. We are grateful that she has chosen to share them with us. Shirley, a member of the Lake County Doll Club and the United Federation of Doll Clubs, Inc., lives on a farm with her collections of dogs, cats and horses. Nowadays, her favorite pastime is sharing her time with her grandchildren.
