Eric Hunt : Charging Against Napoleon: Diaries and Letters of Three Hussars 1808-1815 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Charging Against Napoleon: Diaries and Letters of Three Hussars 1808-1815:

The 18th Hussars were one of Britain's most dashing regiments of the Napoleonic Wars, the regiment fought under Wellington throughout the Peninsular campaign and were present at the final victory at Waterloo. Eric Hunt has assembled letters and diaries of three 18th Hussar officers which cover the entire Napoleonic period. Combat and daily life in the Peninsula and Waterloo campaigns are described in vivid detail, along with insights into the social attitudes of the times.

About the Author Eric Hunt served with the 13th/18th Hussars from 1950 to 1970 before pursuing a successful civilian career. Since retiring, he has devoted much of his time to studying military and regimental history. He has written The History of the 13th/18th Hussars 1947-92. He now lives in Dorset.
