C. Stryker Lampe : Cigar Box Labels before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cigar Box Labels:

Bargain Books are non-returnable. A unique tribute to the mystique of the cigar, this handsome box, modeled after an actual cigar box and closed with a seal, contains 40 colorful postcards of exotic cigar box labels from around the world.

.com It was Winston Churchill who made famous the phrase "I always hold Cuba in my mouth." Napoleon Bonaparte, Abe Lincoln, and Richard Wagner were all connoisseurs of tobacco. The Cigar Labels Collectible Postcards, packed in--what else?--a cigar box, offer an unusual tribute to the mystique of the cigar: each of the 40 postcards is unique, featuring a color print from the stores of a private collector. These postcards, perfect for aficionados as well as for those who appreciate cigar kitsch, offer a historic celebration of both well-known and exotic cigar-box labels from around the world. --Julie Ubben
