This is a wonderful book!By Massachusetts customerThis book on Collectible Television Memorabilia will delight you with its fascinating topic, photos and descriptions. It covers 900 subjects with 500 photos- all well described, well written and well researched. You'll enjoy turning back the years with page after page of your favorite TV shows trinkets, dolls, games, and much more. Well done!!

The 1950s saw the popularity of television explode in America, and the 1990s are seeing the growth of the exciting television collectibles field. This brand new book contains information and pictures of memorabilia from over 260 television programs dating from the 1950s to the 1990s, from "The Honeymooners" and "Bonanza" to "M*A*S*H," "The Brady Bunch," "Lost in Space," and "The A-Team." Nearly 900 items are shown in over 500 color pictures. Photographs feature dolls, paper dolls, games, coloring books, comic books, toys, puppets, action figures, and other interesting television memorabilia. Program information is provided, listing the main cast members, time on the air, and networks carrying each series. Manufacturers and marks are meticulously listed, as are sources for securing television collectibles. Current prices for these items are listed conveniently with each photograph. This book is a must for anyone interested in the fast-growing hobby of television collectibles!
