I love to make clothes for 18 inch dolls and this seemed like the book for me,and it is. The photos are wonderful and the directions are easy to follow. There are so many cute ideas in this book it is hard to pick one to work on first. If you have vintage items that are damaged and you were thinking of getting rid of them look at this book first. You can take those items, cut out the damaged parts and create a new item that you can display on a doll, or give to a little girl to enjoy. I recommend this book to doll lovers, home sewers, and any one who enjoys just looking at a great book. I think granddaughters would just love looking at the pictures. Don't know why but I especially like the outfit on page 66.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Every page makes me smile and Marsha is a delight to converse with as wellBy CustomerMarsha Greenberg is living my dream, and now it is in print!. This delightful book made me giddy over a use for my vintage linens. The very evening I received the book I went to my sewing room. Every page makes me smile and Marsha is a delight to converse with as well. I'm blessed to not need the patterns, but what a bonus! Even directions for shoe creation is included. At first I thought her dolls look like Valerie Bertinelli, but seeing her picture, now I think she modeled them after her lovely self. I don't recall a book I have so enjoyed spending time with in years. I have included a picture of one of the dresses I made inspired by Marsha.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. versionBy CustomerThis book is absolutely excellent and follows the format of the first book! There are patterns in the back of the book so there is no guessing on sizing as I have seen in other doll pattern books! The sewing instructions are again clear and easy to read!! I am just as thrilled with this book as I am with the first book, Hankie Couture. The dolls that were designed for Marsha's creations are absolutely gorgeous as well! Overall, I am totally excited and am thinking of venturing into sewing as a result of Marsha's creations and books!!

Hankie Couture creator Marsha Greenberg shares her extraordinary gift for transforming vintage fabric into one-of-a-kind doll fashions. Now you can make them too! Doll Couture is an exquisite collection of fashions for 18-inch dolls—everything from dresses to pants, jumpers, blouses, and shoes—meticulously crafted from vintage handkerchiefs, table cloths, tea towels, laces, linens, pillowcases, table runners, and much more. Doll Couture showcases more than 100 of Marsha's unique fashions and accessories. It's more than a beautiful photo album though; the book includes 10 original patterns and sewing instructions so you can get started turning fabrics you already own into new and beautiful creations. Presented in stylish, sophisticated photographs modeled by a doll of Marsha's own design, and accented by sensibility quotes that highlight the designer's philosophy and aesthetics, Doll Couture sets the stage for a fabulous world of doll fashion. It's time to get started transforming your own treasured heirlooms or colorful flea-market finds into unique fashion ensembles!

About the AuthorMarsha Greenberg began sewing her own fashions at the age of eleven. Her love of fabrics, colors, and patterns continued throughout the years, and in 1978 she founded a women's sportswear company called Marsha, Inc. In the summer of 2002, after discovering a treasure trove of vintage handkerchiefs in a Pennsylvania antiques shop, Marsha made her first "Hankie Couture" dress—and hasn't stopped since. Marsha and her husband live in Encino, California.
