before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Drive-In Movie Posters (Illustrated History of Movies Through Posters):

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great Poster Collection By Brian Gagnon In this book, the posters are eye-catching and colorful. They vary in dates from 1933 to as recent as 2000. They cover a wide range of drive-in movies. From biker movie to slashers, this book has it all. What more could a movie buff ask for? 2 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By clyde d rozell thanks Features posters depicting 169 of the absolute worst films ever made! The editors have carefully chosen the films with the absolute best poster art and taglines, ones that promised far more than the films delivered!

About the Author Richard Allen is a lecturer in early modern and Celtic history at Sunderland University. Bruce Hershenson has published more than 20 books of movie posters. His archive contains images from over 15,000 films, as well as tens of thousands of film pressbooks.
