Cicely Mary Barker : Flower Fairies Friends Alphabet Colouring Book before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Flower Fairies Friends Alphabet Colouring Book:

All but U and X letters have a flower fairy (though those letters are included on pages, so you can still use the book as a way to help teach letters.) The designs are fairly open and easy to color. There is plenty of room left for blending or adding details if you wish to do so. I think it is a good book for adults who do not care for a lot of intricate details, those who are fans of Ms. Barker, and for children as well. As it is printed on both sides of the page, using certain coloring medium will bleed through to the design on the back of the page. As I like all of the designs in the book and it is a good value, I decided to purchase a second copy of the book so I can use whatever type of medium I want and still be able to color all of the pages. This is what I experienced while coloring in this book and testing it with my coloring medium. 24 Flower Fairy Alphabet designs inspired by Cicely Mary Barker's artwork. Printed on both sides of the page. Paper is medium weight, slightly smooth, white and non-perforated. Glue Binding. Designs stop well before the binding area. All designs have a framing line around the outer edge to give a natural stopping point for the design and all of the elements within it. I really appreciate this feature in coloring books. Alcohol-based markers bleed through this paper. Water-based markers, gel pens and India ink pens leave very slight shadows on the back of the page. Colored pencils worked well with this paper. Both oil and wax-based pencils provided good pigment, layered well with the same or multiple colors and blended well using a blending stick. 42 of 48 people found the following review helpful. 3 complaints. By Prewitt Family. I have 3 complaints about this coloring book. 1) the coloring pages are 2 sided, so only one can be displayed at a time. I understand that it is 'just' a coloring book, but it's also kind of not. It's more of an art book. You generally don't see thick 'high quality paper so that felt-tip pens or paint can be used' on a cheap run of the mill coloring book. It would have been nice to have each fairy on its own dedicated page so they could all be displayed at the same time. 2) the pages are not perforated or easy to remove whatsoever. For an art book with this much thought and love put into it, I would have expected a way to remove the pages to display or copy them for at home reproduction for multiple children. 3) there is no table of contents. Again, I get that it is 'just' a coloring book, but being that it is a very specific coloring book, a table of contents would have made sense, and been quite nice. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I honestly would have been happier if I had found this book before the "officially ..." By Aeryn Kelly. I honestly would have been happier if I had found this book before the "officially adult" colouring book instead. The only thing I dislike about this book is the insanely bright pink cover, lol! Aside from that, the pictures are nice and big, wonderfully reproduced, good for either simple or detailed colourists, and it doesn't include any "wallpaper" pages or anything. It's just what it says, reproductions of the Flower Fairy Alphabet by Cicely Mary Barker. You can colour to match her original colours, or go your own way, it's very nice. Plus the price point means you can buy several (like me) so you don't have to worry if you want to use your markers instead on the pages.

Introduce young children to the alphabet with the help of Barker's delightful Flower Fairies. From A to Z, there is a Flower Fairy to color in for each letter of the alphabet. Constructed of heavy paper suitable for crayons, marker, or paints. Line drawings.

About the Author Flower Fairies Friends is a new publishing programme specially designed to encourage young girls to use their imaginations and create their own fairy world. They are taken into the unique world of the Flower Fairies through Cicely Mary Barker's beautiful watercolours combined with natural objects.
